Additional Funding Resources and Announcements

15th Annual Public Private Conference – REGISTRATION IS NOW OPEN. The Office of Partnerships and Grant Services in Partnership with the Center for Nonprofit Advancement will host its 15th Annual Public Private Conference entitled, “Building People – Building Stronger Organizations- The Nonprofit Sector Significance: A Pathway to the Middle Class” at the Kellogg Conference Center on the Campus of Gallaudet University on Monday, September 28th from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. The conference theme focuses on the significance of the nonprofit sector as a major employer that according to the Bureau of Labor Statistics represents the highest percent 26.6% on nonprofit employment by State in the country followed by New York at 18.1% in 2012. The District and the Metropolitan Area in general nonprofit sector are often viewed as a service provider seeking funding rather than a major sustainable employer whose employees are well positioned to succeed on the Pathway to the Middle Class. For more information visit the Office of Partnerships and Grant Services website at www.opgs.dc.gov.

Previous Funding Resources and Announcements

Your Board and Fundraising: An Introductory Class. The Foundation Center of Washington DC is sponsoring a “Your Board and Fundraising: An Introductory Class” on Thursday August 13 from 10 am to 11:30 am. The Foundation Center is located at 1627 K Street, NW, Suite 300. This class helps you think through the process of getting your board involved with fundraising. It will cover: the role of your board; why board members may be reluctant to fundraise and how to overcome these concerns; ways the board can participate in fundraising activities; and tips for strengthening your fundraising board. For more information and to register visit Your Board and Fundraising.

Why Navigate the Legal System All By Yourself? The D.C. Bar Pro Bono Center will help your organization locate pro bono legal counsel. Since 1998, they have matched almost two hundred nonprofit organizations with law firms in the District of Columbia. Some of the successes included: matching a nonprofit with legal counsel to help it negotiate a new commercial lease; secured legal counsel for a nonprofit that wanted to conduct a legal audit of its governance documents; found pro bono counsel to assist a nonprofit that was being audited by the federal government with respect to a government grant; matched a nonprofit with legal counsel to help it with a trademark dispute regarding its right to use its corporate name; secured legal counsel for a firm that was having performance issues with one of its employees. If you need help with a real estate matter, corporate governance, contract issues or employment matters, contact lpaley@dcbar.org, and they will help match you with pro bono legal counsel.

Free Home Internet for Low-income DC Families. Connect.DC, the District’s digital inclusion program, is partnering with EveryoneOn, Byte Back, and the United Planning Organization to provide six months of free home Internet service ($60 value) to 500 DC families with school-aged children. This project is designed to help low-income children use technology to succeed in school. For more information visit <http://connect.dc.gov/free-internet>.

In-Kind Capacity Building Grant Opportunity. The Taproot Foundation announces its in-Kind Capacity Building Grant opportunity. The grant will provide professional consulting services, called Service Grants, through their Service Grant Program. Every Service Grant is provided pro bono by a team of 5-6 business professionals who volunteer their time and expertise to help a nonprofit in their community. Their project provides nonprofit organizations located Washington DC with the tools and services they need to strengthen your organizations and serve your communities. Their teams deliver excellent services, customized to meet the organizations specific objectives and help them advance its mission. Deadline to submit an application is September 1. For more information visit the Taproot website at <http://www.taprootfoundation.org/get-probono/get-service-grant>

How to Utilize AmeriCorp Members - Serve DC- the Mayor's Office on Volunteerism will offer 5 seminars to help organizations learn how to utilize AmeriCorps members to leverage the impact in their community. You can learn how to utilize AmeriCorps members to leverage your organization's impact in the community. AmeriCorps engages more than 75,000 Americans in intensive service each year at nonprofits, schools, public agencies, community and faith-based groups across the country. Since the program's founding in 1994, more than 900,000 AmeriCorps members have contributed more than 1.2 billion hours in service across America while tackling pressing problems
